Hero Hunt!

Celebrating 30 years, the Renfrew Institute staff will hide 30 special wooden necklaces throughout the lower park. (Please, one find per family.)

All children must be accompanied by an adult.

A MEG PRODUCTION

Heroic King Arthur & The Sword in the Stone

2:15-3:15 PM-Featured Performance:
Maryland Entertainment Group

In keeping with the theme, the featured guest entertainment is “Heroic King Arthur and the Sword and the Stone,” performed by members of the Maryland Entertainment Group (MEG).

In a fast-paced show performed by two actors playing multiple roles, the play tells the story of how Arthur becomes King. This is a fun, interactive, and kid-friendly tale of The Sword in the Stone, where an unlikely hero becomes the champion of his people.

The story of young Arthur, unknowingly destined to become King, is full of castles, wizards, magical beings and a special feat that earns Arthur the crown.

MEG’s mission is to provide “exceptional and relevant performing and visual arts to the greater Hagerstown area and surrounding community, for the purposes of diversifying and enriching the artistic offerings in the area, providing opportunities for artists and performers, and cultivating a broader arts audience.”

A Super-Powered Piñata and a Heroic-Sized Anniversary Cake Will Be Vanquished After the Performance

4:30–5:30 PM – Relax in the shade of the Kentucky Coffee Bean trees on the back lawn...

and enjoy musical entertainment by the Waynesboro Children’s Theatre Troupe when they return to their roots with A Variety of Favorite Show Tunes, featuring a selection of Broadway classics and songs from the stage and screen.

Since 1995, WCTT has provided opportunities for children’s drama experiences through the production of classics like The Wizard of Oz, Cinderella, Oliver, and South Pacific. Spread out your blanket & groove!
